$10 for non members

Note: Persons in South Carolina who are not chapter members may attend for free at 1201 Main Street, 23rd floor, Columbia.

About the Topic

Join the Instructional Design and Learning SIG (IDL) and the South Carolina Midlands chapter of STC for a webinar on how to develop effective webinars. This program will be taught by Jane Smith, former manager of the IDL SIG and an experienced instructional designer and teacher with her own consulting firm. Jane will discuss why and when to do a seminar, production methods, advertising, and registration. Best practices in presentation methods will be demonstrated. We hope you will join us.
