

How My Cats Helped Me Quickly Develop Training Materials webinar with Jamye Sagan chat

- 13:48:09 From Viqui Dill (she/her) : cutie
- 13:53:55 From Mellissa R : hahah
- 13:55:08 From Ann Freeman : Good idea - reference material
- 13:57:02 From Ann Freeman : Our elder cat does that and pukes frequently
- 14:04:40 From Viqui Dill (she/her) : amazing
- 14:04:47 From Claire Marie-Peterson : I'm sorry to have joined late! (Internet connectivity wonky.) Did you say that you would make the presentation available to us?
- 14:06:22 From Viqui Dill (she/her) : I am recording
- 14:07:37 From Viqui Dill (she/her) : You will get a link to the recording
- 14:08:18 From Claire Marie-Peterson : Thanks!
- 14:22:05 From Ann Freeman : I used a metal firescreen over the jigsaw puzzle to protect from cats. I lost about 1/4 of a puzzle once from a cat scooting it off.
- 14:22:37 From Mellissa R : I am not a puzzle person because I would be the one to accidentally swipe half the pieces to the floor
- 14:22:38 From Viqui Dill (she/her) : Great idea Ann
- 14:28:18 From Viqui Dill (she/her) : Ha ha Mellissa
- 14:33:01 From Ann Freeman : Thanks, Jamye!
- 14:33:34 From Lynn Allen : thanks! I have a kitty like Gimli and he is quite the character. Thanks for making your presentation fun.
- 14:33:48 From Mellissa R : What was the name of the book, again, please?
- 14:34:28 From Maryann Bowen : Preparing INstructional Objectives.
- 14:34:34 From Maryann Bowen : Robert Mager
- 14:34:37 From Mellissa R : thanks, Maryann
- 14:34:52 From Ann Freeman : knitting is another one
- 14:35:32 From Ann Freeman : And it stayed with me...
- 14:37:34 From Nannette : Thank you for the very engaging session. I think it'll be very helpful as I start developing smaller courses.
- 14:38:06 From Maryann Bowen : Thank you! Need to run. Happy holidays, everyone
